

Cry Out for Jesus' Touch (Feb 2015)

At the feet of Jesus, a woman came crying out.

As perfume fell, from her alabaster box.

Like her broken vessel, her tears flowed out.

She cast all her sins on Him.

Jesus washed her clean, when she cried out for Jesus' touch.

Cry out for Jesus' touch. Cry out for Jesus' touch.

You're not asking for too much, For He is seeking such.

To cry out for His touch.

Cry out for Jesus' touch. Cry out for Jesus' touch.

He is listening for that sound, the heart that's crying out.

Cry out for Jesus touch.

When your ground is dry, cry out for Jesus' touch.

(He'll break) up that fallowed ground, yes He will come.

And His gentle rain, will start to fall,

You'll feel raindrops on your tongue.

(So open) wide right now, and cry out for Jesus' touch. (CHORUS)

God's children now, Need to cry for Jesus' touch.

He'll meet us here, when we cry for Jesus' touch.

He'll remove divisions, He'll make us one,

When we seek His face and come,

He is waiting now, So let's cry out for Jesus' touch.

END: Cry out for Jesus Touch, Cry out for Jesus Touch.

Cry out for Jesus touch, For He is seeking such.

Cry out for Jesus touch, Cry out for Jesus Touch.

We're not asking for too much..... Let's cry out for His touch.

Tempo: Cry out for Jesus touch
